Doug Bowe

Australia

Doug Bowe is a Dogs Australia All Breeds judge, who started judging in 1984 and is both an accredited trainee judge assessor and accredited breed assessor. His specialist breeds are Dobermann, Pointer, Fox Terrier (Smooth), and Jack Russell Terrier.

I have judged in all states of Australia, New Zealand, Singapore, India and Malaysia.

Presented lectures on Dobermanns, Pointers, Fox Terrier Smooths and Jack Russell Terriers.

My interest in Dobermanns started age 12; I was and still am fascinated by this magnificent breed. I acquired my first Dobermann in 1968. Since then I have owned, bred and handled some of the top-winning Dobermanns in Australia, the most notable was Gr Ch Doberherr Hot Aphrodite. She was the number two all-time winning Dobermann bitch in Australia. I have bred over 100 champion Dobermanns.

In the mid-1980s I branched into Pointers. The highlight was having bred the only brother and sister to be awarded Best in Show and Runner up Best in Show (and Best Opposite in Show) at a Pointer National. I have bred over 50 Pointer Champions.

2002 saw a new breed enter my life, Fox Terrier (Smooth), which soon became my love. I achieved the number one Fox Terrier (Smooth) award in Australia in 2006 to 2011, and number one Terrier in Australia in 2008 and 2010.

I co-owned and handled the biggest winning Terrier in Australia, the SFT, Supreme Ch Wyninebah Checkmate with 79 BIS and over 400 Grp 1st to his credit.

I have also owned and handled one of the biggest winning Jack Russell Terriers in Australia, Supreme Ch Whatajack Rebel. This dog was placed Best in Group (Group 1st) at Perth, Hobart, and Canberra Royal Shows and Group 3 at Sydney Royal Show.
